The time has been, when those who killed good men thought they did God service. But let the succeeding declaration be applied by our present objectors, -- These things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father nor Me. Here, then, appears to be our error--that we do not estimate the conduct of men by the standard of the gospel, but that we reduce the standard of the gospel to the conduct of men. That good men should fail to conform to the perfect purity of Christianity, or to perceive it, need not be wondered, for we have sufficient examples of it. Good men in past ages allowed many things as permitted...
