Adventures in Africa. By Major W. Cornwallis Harris: of the Hon. East India Company s Engineers. Books on Africa are attracting great attention amongst the reading public, and must continue to do so, from the limited knowledge we possess of that continent, and the yet savage life and pursuits of its inhabitants. One with tolerable advantages could scarcely write on such a theme without giving pleasure, even if his details should want the authentication which accuracy requires. Major Harris records the results of an official tour; and describes the scenes of his visit with a captivating vivacity. We have scarcely ever met with more sparkling and even gorgeous pictures than everywhere adorn his narrative. The only damper...
