Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from School Survey of Lawrence, Kansas, 1922, Vol. 23 At the regular meeting of the board of education of the city of Lawrence, Kansas, held October 11, 1920, the bureau of school service of the University of Kansas was invited by the board of education to make whatever school survey seemed necessary in order to advise that Board what sort of a new high school must be constructed to serve the needs of the city of Lawrence. The bureau undertook this problem by making a careful inquiry: first, to determine the kind of high-school curriculum or curriculums that are needed in order to provide adequately for secondary education in a social community such as Lawrence, recognizing that the specifically educational factors must receive first consideration because of the impossibility of reaching a correct or safe decision on the kind of physical plant needed in any community unless it is understood at the start what uses it must serve and how extensive each use will be; secondly, to determine what kind of a school building program such a curriculum or curriculums will demand, holding the viewpoint that there are but few features of the high-school building that ought to be determined independently of what the remainder of the system provides or is likely to provide: thirdly, to determine what is the ability of Lawrence to pay for such a school building program and the most approved method of doing it? The regular staff in the school of education of the University was supplemented by the services of E. E. Lewis, superintendent of schools of Rockford, Ill., for making the study of the proposed building program as reported...
