If we may believe all that the prophets of evil have to say about the condition of local self-government in the United States, the future historian will trace the destruction of liberty in the great republic to the development of those corporations, the original institution of which brought light out of darkness. There has been a significant change during the last quarter of a century, and more especially since the late war, in the feelings with which the people of this country exercise what may be called their minor political duties.
