Tek-kha.--This congregation is composed chiefly of men fresh from China and house servants. The attendance vanes very considerably. The country congregations are more encouraging, but the town work, though much more difficult, is most needful. 2. Serangoon.--This congregation, though small in numbers, is stronger than most in earnestness of life and liberality of giving. 3. Bukit Timah.--This, our oldest congregation, keeps well together, but there is not much progress to report. For years we have failed to get suitable men for elders. The Serangoon cause prospers largely owing to the devotion of the elder there. Men full of faith and of the Holy Ghost will greatly help...
