Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Davidnelson Camp; Recollections of a Long and Active Life: The Autobiographical Notes of David Nelson Camp Mr. Camp was already a very old man when he began to put together on paper the reminiscences which are collected in this little volume. His strength failed before his undertaking was completed. Of some portions of his life there are parallel accounts in his manuscript. Some prominent topics are left quite unmentioned. In the preparation of these memoirs for publication brief statements on the subjects which are omitted from his own account have been inserted in bracketed paragraphs. It is the desire of his grandchildren to add here a brief mention of some of the distinctive impressions which his life has made on them. As small children they found him warm-hearted, generous to their faults, interested in their thoughts and wishes, skillful at tempting them into interest in serious pursuits, courteous to every one including themselves, an unfailing example of industry and sagacity and of religious devotion and reverence. In later years they found the same characteristics continued....
