Not illustrated. 1838 Excerpt: .Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. 46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God; he hath seen the Father. 47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. 48 I am that bread of life. 49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. 50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh which I will give for the life of the world. 52 The Jews therefore strove in themselves, saying, How can this give us flesh to eat? Do you recollect what Jesus said in the last lesson, about losing any of those who should come to him? Did you ever read in your library books about good children who died very happy? Have you not sometimes greatly desired to see them? I suppose you have seen and heard of some very wicked people; now the Bible says these go to a different place: have you considered toward which place you have advanced the last week! 41 When he had taught them all these things, what did the Jews do? Why did they murmur? Were they...
