QUESTIONS FOR WOLF

Thistledown Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Questions for Wolf, Shannon Quinn s debut poetry collection, explores desire and memory, examining the damaged lives of characters whose street smarts are their only defense against self-destruction and loss of hope. Quinn s poems delve into a world of inner city mortifications as she contemplates lost innocence and how the longing to be great rather than merely good can drive people to pursue a life along society s margins. Questions for Wolf is a collection of dark yet delicate poems, celebrating the myth and magic associated with female sexuality and agency. Images of childlike purity combine with tragedy as the collection follows a motley gang that includes the morphined, the moon-shined, /the induced amnesiacs and the bicycle thieves as they stage a revolution against polite society and pulverize the idea of being good instead of great. Stark natural imagery combines with Quinn s magic-infused metaphors as she describes liquid skies filled with stars and the simultaneously soothing and oppressive force of water as it alternates between the serene waves of a fresh hit and the sound-muffling burden placed on revolutionaries chained to the ocean floor . Bears, dogs, elephants, and other strange beasts including carnivorous...
