Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The College of the University of Pennsylvania: April, 1899 The University of Pennsylvania comprehends seven departments of instruction, Organization as follows: the College, the Department of Philosophy (Graduate School), the Schools of Law, Medicine, Dentistry, Veterinary Medicine and the Laboratory of Hygiene. Of these the College is the oldest, and around it the other departments of the University have grouped themselves, forming a united organization under the management of one Board of Trustees. The University Catalogue, published annually in December, gives information Catalogues regarding all Departments of the University. Applications for copies of the Catalogue should be addressed to the Assistant Secretary, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa. No charge is made for the Catalogue, but in all cases the request must be accompanied by ten cents in stamps, to cover return postage. Circulars of Information, relating to the separate Departments of the University, will be mailed free to anyone upon receipt of name and address. Such applications should be addressed to the Deans of the several departments. All letters of inquiry regarding the internal regulations and requirements in each separate Department of the University, should be addressed to the Dean of that Department (see below), and not to the Secretary of the University. The number of students in the different Departments of the University (1898-99) is 2,790, of which the number in the College is 649, exclusive of 277 taking the courses for teachers. Amongst the students of the University are representatives from forty-two (42) states of the Union, and thirty-one (31) foreign countries.
